

Mentoring / Peer Support & Coaching

| Who are we | Why | What have we done |
|---|--|---|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Liz Edwards – Founder and CEO of Rubies Charity Andy Appleyard – Programme Officer, HeadStart Katie Cowie – Programme Manager, Bridges Outcomes Partnership (Turning Tides) | Ensuring all children and young people have access to a trusted adult (mentors and coaches) into schools/colleges Expand reach of peer support models to help improve transition to secondary school Build a research base that proves wellbeing support increases attendance | 10 Secondary schools benefitted from group work targeted at improving outcomes for girls Primary school pupils benefitted from peer transition support and HAF summer activities 28 secondary schools/colleges have benefitted from trusted adults improving pupils' wellbeing |

Relationships that Connect, Building our Communities

